

Saint Spyridon Orthodox Studies Program

Orthodox Discussion Group

Religious Education is a lifelong undertaking for every Orthodox Christian. At Saint Spyridon's, Religious Education classes have focused in the past on a variety of topics including the Divine Liturgy, the Creed, the Miracles and Parables of the Four Gospels, and much more. Our theme this year will be the "Twelve Great Feasts of our Lord". We will be discussing the importance and message of each feast through the hymnology, scripture readings, and the iconography. The classes take place weekly beginning the week of September 26th.

Monday: 7:00 p.m. — 8:15 p.m. in Greek
Wednesday: 10:30 a.m. — 11:30 a.m. in English

Iconography Seminar

On its fourth year, our Iconography seminar will once again welcome new and old students to learn how to make icons. Mr. Panagiotis Michalopoulos, a professional iconographer, is donating his time to teach both children and adults the art of iconography. Registration Form is enclosed. The Registration Fee for this class is $100 for stewards of Saint Spyridon. Classes will be offered on Wednesday evenings starting on Wednesday, September 21st, at 6:00 p.m.

Byzantine Music School

The Byzantine Music School of the Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Chicago, provides the basics in the art of Byzantine Music for both children and adults. The branch of the school for the southern suburbs of Chicago is hosted by Saint Spyridon. The Registration Form is enclosed.
